TokenStars Winter 2020 Report: Hot News in Cold Times

Spring has come so we are happy to share the main news of the past winter. Winter was both productive and successful for our team and TokenStars athletes and we are glad to announce the results of the period:

- Great results in live poker tournaments
- A new player joined TokenStars poker team
- Valeriya Olyanovskaya won her first ITF tournament
- CardRates.com published an article about TokenStars

Marco took 7th place in the Madrid Live tournament.

Our players, Tobias Schaaf and Marco D'Amico participated in the 888poker LIVE Festival Madrid 888€ main event. Tobias took 82nd place, winning 2,000€ while Marco reached the final table and took the 7th place and won 24,000€.
Previously we were focused on online tournaments but after such results, we plan to regularly send our best players to Live ones.

A new player joined TokenStars poker team

Last year Benjamin Fischer joined our scouting system and was approved by the experts. Now we can finally announce that the contract is signed and Benjamin is officially part of our poker team!

Benjamin prefers to play Spin and Go games and is very experienced in them. With the help of our coach — Tobias Schaaf, he plans to raise his limits and achieve new heights

Valeriya Olyanovskaya won her first ITF tournament

In January, Valeriya Olyanovskaya visited Turkey and participated in two W15 tournaments in Antalya. Together with Ovcharenko and Ignatjeva she reached quarterfinals in doubles in both competitions. She was much more successful in singles and finally won her first PRO tournament. In the final match, she masterfully defeated (6:0;6-2) Silvia Njiric (WTA #610). We congratulate Valeriya and believe that there will be more victories in the future.

CardRates.com published an article about TokenStars

A free internet resource CardRates featured TokenStars in their article about blockchain and sport. Our General Manager Philipp Tsagolov shared his view on TokenStars development and on blockchain industry perspective in general. If you haven't read an article yet we recommend you to take a look at it.
