

TokenStars June Report: It's A Scorcher!

June was eventful for both the project team and our community members. We have carried out several activities on the platform. We also expected progress in the scouting module, where we are actively looking for promising participants. But first things first.

- 4 applications in the scouting module
- New item in the e-comm module
- 2 poker tournaments
- Training session with Denis
- UEFA Championship in the Predictions module

4 applications in the scouting module

In June, we received three applications at once from promising juniors in tennis.

Victoria Matasova is 16 years old. She already won 2 titles in singles and, incredibly, 6 in doubles. Her highest career position in the ITF rating is 186.

Eva Gartseva is an 18-year-old tennis player from Russia. She started to play tennis when she was four and already won 2 ITF tournaments. Her highest ITF rank is 111.

Ivan Burnashov is 16 years old. He started to play at the age of 5, and since then, he is constantly developing his skills. He won 2 ITF titles in doubles - J5 Balashiha and J5 St Petersburg.

Now players' applications are being studied by our experts. They will appreciate the technique of the game and give their opinion. After that, the players will go to the voting stage, where each of you can take part in the selection of those whom we will approve for the conclusion of the contract.

The poker direction of our business was not left without applications, too. We received a new application from Pavel Kovalevskiy. Pavel is from Belarus, he is 26 years old. ROI is 10.2%. Pavel wants to develop together with the team and start regularly making money in the poker industry on an ongoing basis.

New item in the e-comm module

In the world of sports, tradition, and transfer of experience are important. And this time, we have a unique lot. Ivan Zlobin decided to donate the gloves given to him by the goalkeeper of Benfica before his first match for the team. Here's what Ivan says: «Paulo Lopes gloves. Benfica's goalkeeper. He gave them to me before the tournament in Switzerland. This was my first tournament for Benfica.»

About the player: Ivan Zlobin is a Russian professional footballer who plays for the Portuguese club Famalicão as a goalkeeper. In 2019 won the Portuguese Super Cup playing for Benfica.

You may reserve this item right now in the E-commerce module.

2 poker tournaments

In order to develop the poker direction of our business, we held two tournaments where players could play at the same table with our coach and compete for a part of the prize pool, which amounted to 30,000 TEAM tokens both times. Both times the game lasted for about an hour, although a fairly fast pace was set. Stay tuned, we will soon announce the continuation of our summer poker season!

Training session with Denis Puisha

In two hours, the player and Denis played several tournaments at low limits. In addition, Denis shared advice from his practice. For the participant this training was already the second.

This time Denis advised on the preflop range, sizing and some other details of the game. Based on the results of the tournaments played, the ROI was 17%. However, this was not the main goal of the training. It is much more important that the player took part in a full-fledged tournament during the training process, and together with Denis they adjusted the strategy.

UEFA Championship in the Prediction Module

June is the time for big football. The 2020 UEFA European Championship has finally taken place. We watched the group stage matches for a week. And we divided the prize pool of 10,000 TEAM tokens between the luckiest and most observant fans.

Distribution of tokens:

First place - 3800 TEAM

Second place - 2550 TEAM

Third place - 1750 TEAM

Fourth place - 1150 TEAM

Fifth place - 750 TEAM
